

Annual EEO Public File Report

The purpose of this EEO Public File Report (“Report”) is to comply with Section 73.2080(c)(6) of the FCC’s EEO Rule. This Report has been prepared on behalf of the Station Employment Unit that is comprised of the following station(s): WMTJ-TV, Fajardo, PR and is required to be placed in the public inspection files of these stations, and posted on their websites, if they have websites.

The information contained in this Report covers the time period beginning October 1st, 2018 to and including September 30, 2019 (the “Applicable Period”).

The FCC’s EEO Rule requires that this Report contain the following information:

1. A list of all full-time vacancies filled by the Station(s) comprising the Station Employment Unit during the Applicable Period;
2. For each such vacancy, the recruitment source(s) utilized to fill the vacancy (including, if applicable, organizations entitled to notification pursuant to Section 73.2080(c)(1)(ii) of the new EEO Rule, which should be separately identified), identified by name, address, contact person and telephone number;
3. The recruitment source that referred the hire for each full-time vacancy during the Applicable Period;
4. Data reflecting the total number of persons interviewed for full-time vacancies during the Applicable Period and the total number of interviewees referred by each recruitment source utilized in connection with such vacancies; and
5. A list and brief description of the initiatives undertaken pursuant to Section 73.2080(c)(2) of the FCC rules.

Appendices 1, 2 and 3, which follow, have been designed, in aggregate, to provide the required information.

WMTJ-TV Internship Program

WMTJ-TV participates in the Internship Program with Universidad Ana G. Méndez (UAGM) - Cupey and Gurabo Campus. The internship program is for students in fields of programming, communications and public relations, engineering and production. College students are provided with an opportunity to work with the station and earn college credits for their work experience. The station provides the necessary information to the schools so that students receive earned credits and guidance under the supervision of one or several managers. During this period (October 1st, 2018 – September 30, 2019), we had 26 participants in this program.

Students visits to Station (at least four events with educational institutions relating to broadcasting careers)

WMTJ-TV receives students of all the academic levels, interested to know the operations of an educational station, the content of the programming and the services to the community that we offer. The students had the opportunity to learn about the broadcast industry and to meet TV personalities. During this period (October 1st, 2018 – September 30, 2019), we received the visit of several groups comprising over 135 students.

Training programs for station personnel

In coordination with the UAGM's Vice Presidency of Human Resources, WMTJ-TV provided trainings to their employees related to compliance, policies, benefits and the staff of the station participated in seminars designed to help the station to improve their performance.

Human Resources Office, Training and Development Division, as part of the annual plan, coordinated several training sessions during the year. The training sessions typically focused on enriching the professional skills, summarized our benefits, provide themes to help and support personal life situation and to ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination.

From October 1st, 2018 to September 30, 2019 our personnel participated in the following trainings and orientation activities:

- Sexual Harassment (online) Policy
- Health Plan Orientation
- Performance Evaluation System Workshops
- Banner 9
- Life Insurance Orientation
- Electronic Attendance Registration Application (Kronos)
